

THE BEDFORD CITIZEN

Click thebedfordcitizen@gmail.com to send your Letter to the Editor

Guidelines for Letters the Editor

Your opinions are welcome, and The Bedford Citizen invites residents to comment on issues relevant to the community in letters that are consistent with our editorial guidelines.

- Although only your name will be published, authors must include their name, street address, and telephone number or email address with every letter.
- Letters will remain visible at www.thebedfordcitizen.org for seven days
- Please limit your letter to fewer than 350 words.
- Email letters are preferred.
- Letters sent via US mail should be sent P.O. Box 212, Bedford, MA 01730 There may be a significant delay in publication due to the time it takes to prepare print messages for electronic publication.
- If you have a photograph to share, please attach a JPG to your email.
- Personal attacks, defamation of character and/or libelous or slanderous material will not be printed.
- Views expressed in letters are those of the authors and are not those of the newspaper.
- The Bedford Citizen reserves the right to limit the number of letters published on a single topic or by an individual reader.

Updated on March 30, 2015