

AUDITION FOR THE CONCORD WOMEN'S CHORUS

The Concord Women's Chorus is a 55-voice, auditioned ensemble that draws its members from twenty Boston-area communities, including Bedford.

Regular rehearsals are held on Tuesday mornings from 9:30 to noon at Trinity Episcopal Church, 81 Elm Street, Concord, MA. The 2015-2016 season begins with open rehearsals on September 6th and September 13th at 9:15 a.m.

Auditions for all voice parts will be held at the conclusion of rehearsal on Tuesday, September 13th.

The audition consists of scales, ear and pitch memory exercises, and sight-reading in order to evaluate musical skills and abilities. A prepared piece is not required, but prior musical experience is expected.

More information on the chorus can be found at www.concordwomenschorus.org. Interested singers should contact Stephanie Smith, Chorus Manager, at s.s.smith@verizon.net.

ABOUT THE CONCORD WOMEN'S CHORUS

While rooted in classical choral music, we explore a diverse body of repertoire, written expressly for women's voices.

This year's concerts will be

- Wrapped in Song - Saturday, December 17 at 3PM and
- Fountain in a Wood: From Walden to Loch Lomond - Saturday, May 13 at 4PM

Both concerts will be presented at Trinity Episcopal Church in Concord.

CWC is a welcoming group of women who enjoy singing and learning excellent, challenging repertoire and performing at the highest level.
